FOREWORD

The 1957 HIGHLANDER reveals a great scientific discovery: it is a new formula for learning, a formula for participation, a formula for fun, a formula for success. It is the formula for Highland Springs High School! The compound itself is not new, for you have known it and been a part of it for quite some time; but the actual formula for it has never been written.

YOU, the students, are a part of the formula. YOU are a molecule of an element—the most important element, Classes. Everyone with whom you associate, everything in which you participate, is also a molecule of an element which forms the chemical compound.

The 1957 HIGHLANDER is broken down into groups which represent elements combining to form this active compound. Mixing the formula, of course, is none other than our own regal Scot, the "Highlander." This is a new experience for him, but he does not anticipate any complications or explosions; it has been proved that the elements of his Alma Mater will mix easily and readily to yield a stable compound—HIGHLAND SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL.

The school's activities are an important element to every student in school. It is the element which adds dash and spirit to the compound of Highland Springs.

Some activities pictured here include the spirited Majorettes relaxing before performing, dancing on Friday in the Physical Education classes, decorating for a school dance, and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen.

Participating in ACTIVITIES.

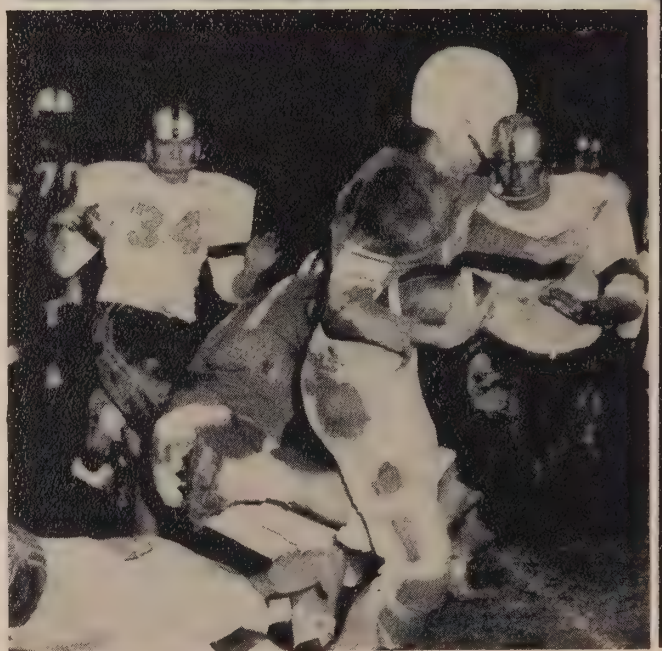

in Sports →

The sports of Highland Springs High School make up the element of teamwork, competition, and sportsmanship. It is also the element which helps us to develop a closer relationship with other schools and with each other. This element of sportsmanship and spirit is displayed on the field by the players and in the stands, in the halls, and in the classes of Highland Springs by the entire student body.

A most important molecule of the element of sports—football.

Coach Gillie Sorrell
Athletic Director

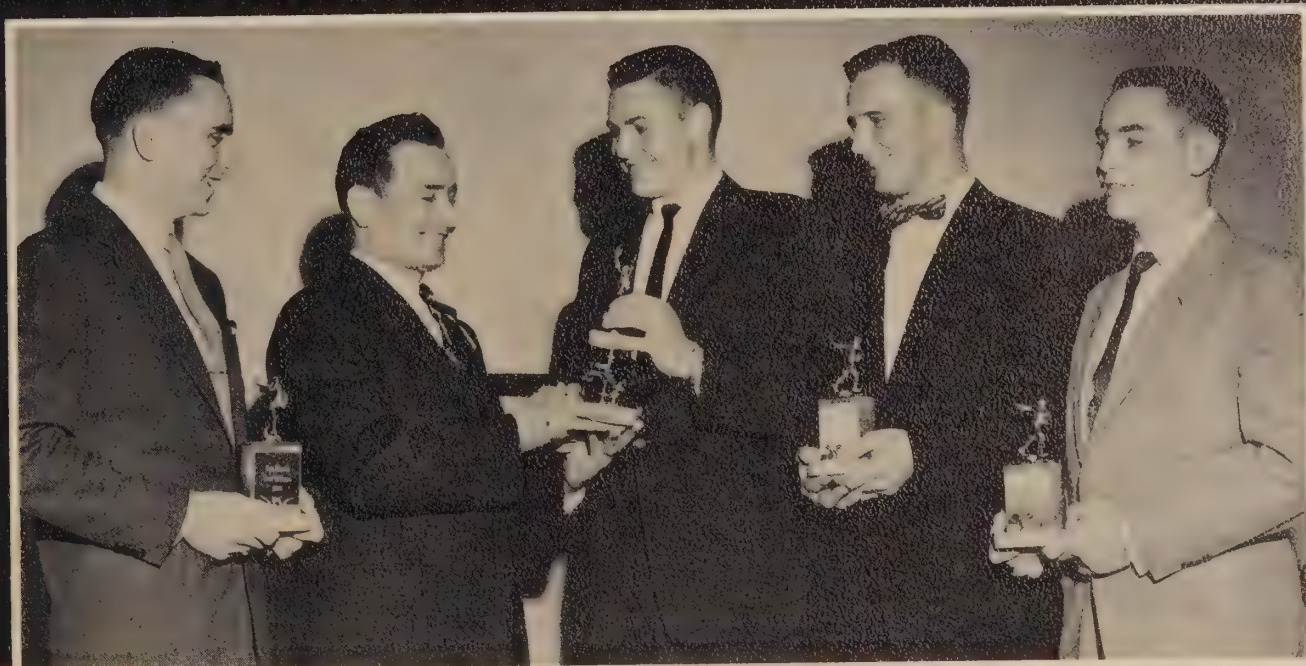

The latest sport at Highland Springs is enjoyed by Wesley Young and Shirley Holc.

A sunny day finds the girls outside playing volley ball.

Football boys pose with their 1956 trophies: Bobby Mantlo, Best Offense; Carlton Rowe, Most Valuable Player; Buddy Martin, Best Spirit; and Joe Harden, Best Defense.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL

dedicated to ...

Dedication is synonymous with devotion.

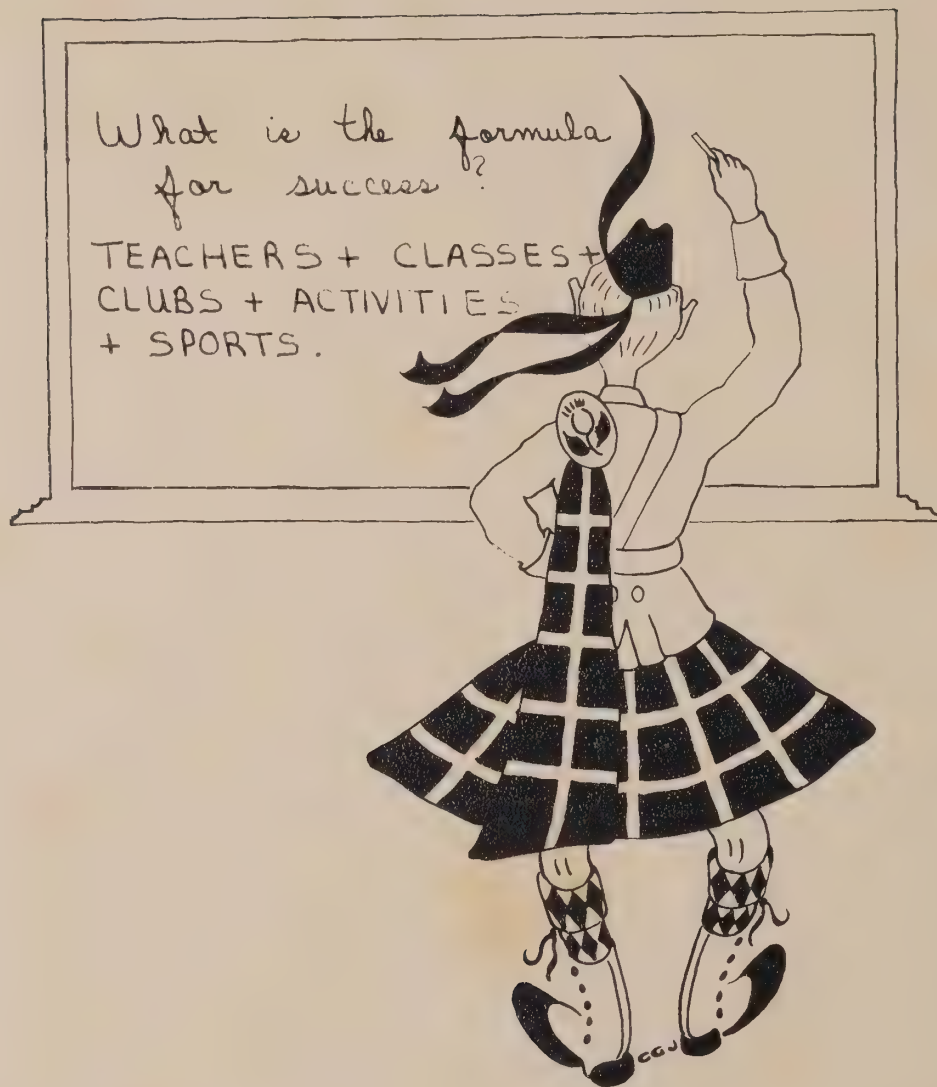

To the man who has unselfishly dedicated himself to our school, we remain devoted; to him who has devoted himself to us, we dedicate this portion of our lives, the 1957 HIGHLANDER:

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. W. B. Gibbs, Jr.
Assistant Principal

The Administration of Highland Springs is a guiding element of all school functions.

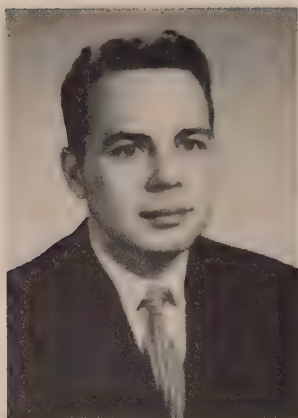

The element is seen in student activities—on the field where sportsmanship is developed—in the classroom where character and integrity are taught—and in the halls where the Springer spirit is displayed.

It gives the faculty the guidance and sponsorship needed for unity; as in Chemistry, complex chemical formulas do not blend successfully without assistance.

Seniors go to New York...

Chaperones, Mr. Rinaldi and Miss Snowden, check their lists.

Seniors viewed the New York skyline from the top of Rockefeller Center.

A scene long to remember—the Statue of Liberty.

A little clowning on the bus—Don Miller devours a banana.

Mr. Haynes enjoys the banquet along with Nita Landers, Class Secretary, and T. C. Williams, Vice President.

Other than all the memories and gaiety, there was, of course, food!

Senior Banquet

The Senior Banquet at Highland Springs has become one of the main events of the Senior year. At the banquet this year, the Seniors enjoyed being together for one of the last times and relived pleasant memories by participating in a musical history of their five years of high school. The Senior Banquet was also the occasion for the reading of the Last Will and Testament and the Class Prophecy. Perhaps the real highlight of the evening was the singing of the Alma Mater and the traditional turning of the rings which signifies that a Senior has prepared himself to go out into the world.

Top: Mary Bobenia proposes a toast to the Administration. Bottom: Preparing the Last Will and Testament is a real job for Brenda Drudge and her committee members.

On June 12, the Class of '57 assembled with their school mates in the auditorium for the last time. Here, the Seniors appear tense as their President, Joe Harden, gives a brief farewell.

Class Day

Preceding the "moving up of classes", the Seniors light their candles before joining together in singing "Follow the Glean".

And Awards

Seniors winning awards were: (First Row) June Kidd, American History Award; Calvin Moss, Readers Digest Award and Danforth Leadership Award; Nita Landers, Danforth Leadership Award. Second Row: Wayne Nunnally, General Music Award; Kermit James, Key Club Award; Billy Eacho, Perfect Attendance for 5 years; Ronald Keith, Hubert Marshall Band Award. Not pictured: Pat Blanton, P.T.A. Scholarship; Carlton Rowe, Athletic Award.

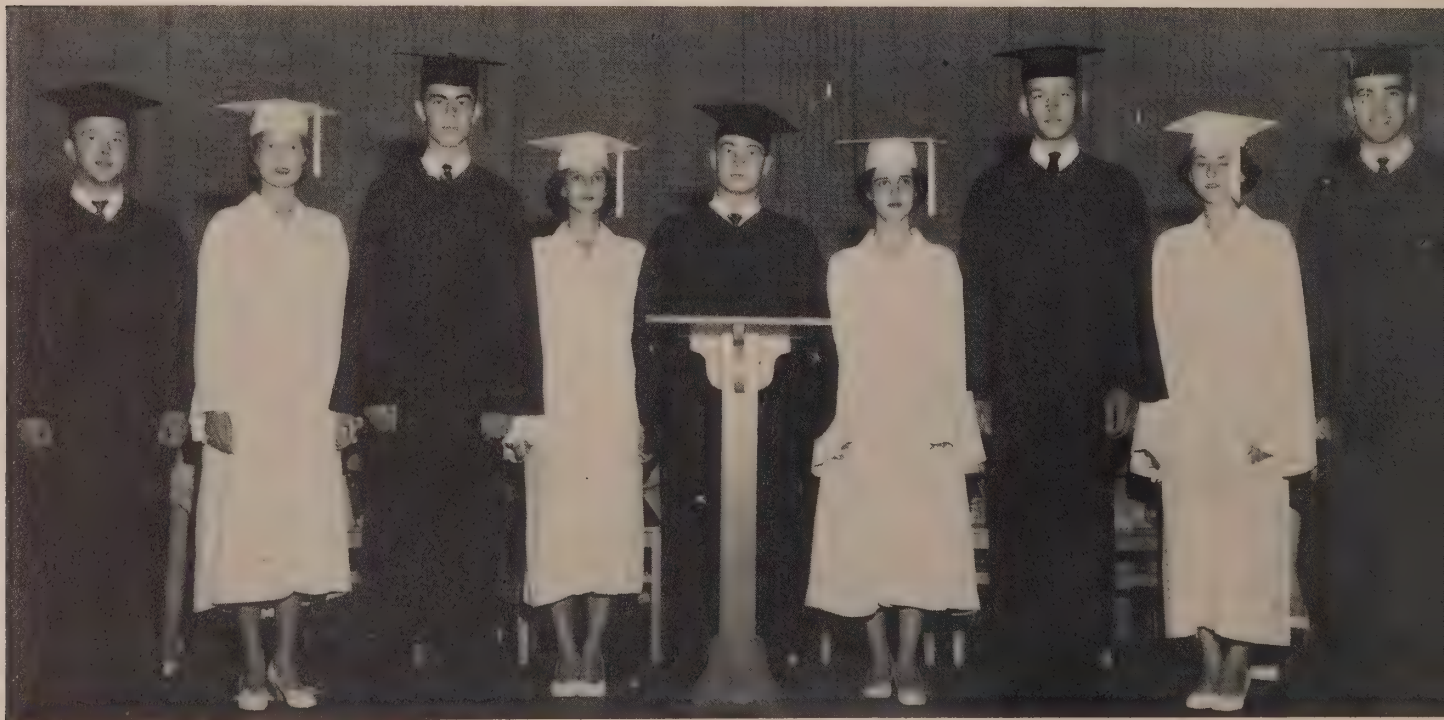

GRADUATION

The Fifty-First annual Commencement exercises of Highland Springs High School were held on June 12 at 8:15 at Bailey Field. The theme chosen was "Youth Meets the American Challenge." The sub-topics—Educationally, Politically, Socially, Culturally, and Spiritually were spoken on by Calvin Moss, Kermit James, Francis Blackburn, June Kidd, and Judy Ellis, respectively. Class President, Joe Harden, gave the welcome to an estimated audience of 2,000 persons. T. C. Williams introduced Mr. W. B. Gibbs who awarded the community honors and Pattie Lou Jernigan introduced Mr. V. W. Kreiter, who gave out the school awards and then awarded the diplomas. After the Farewell, given by Fay Tignor, the Senior Class sang the Alma Mater, and with full and thankful hearts marched out from the field and out from Highland Springs High School.

The Seniors march in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Joe Harden gives the welcome.

Junior Highlights...

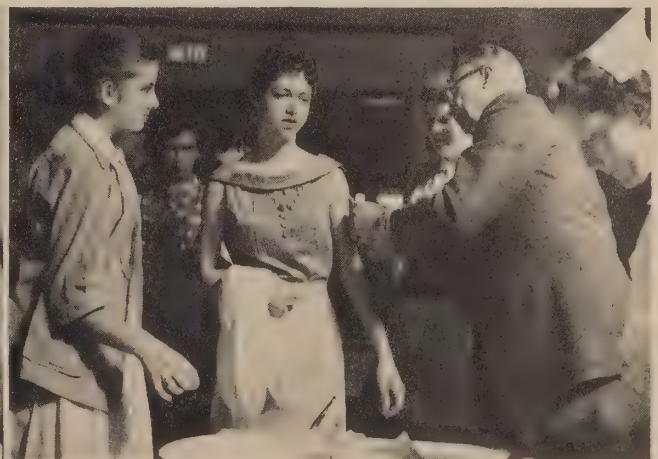

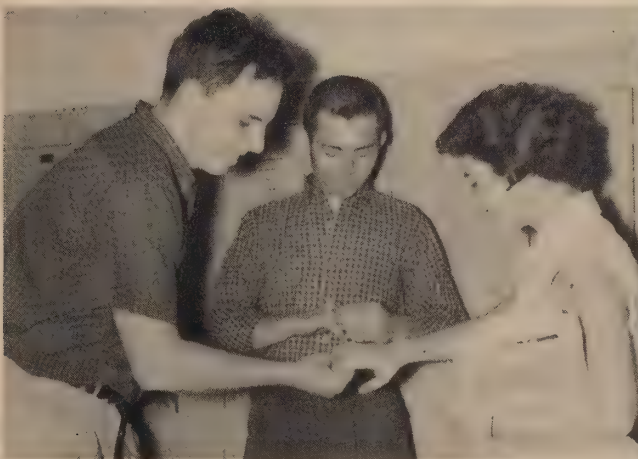

The Juniors had a lot of fun and a lot of headaches preparing the gymnasium for their prom given in honor of the Seniors.

Believe it or not, this is a shorthand class. Juniors learn as well as have fun.

Eighth graders play games and have fun at their annual party sponsored by the S. C. A.

Clubs

Brenda Green
S. C. A. President

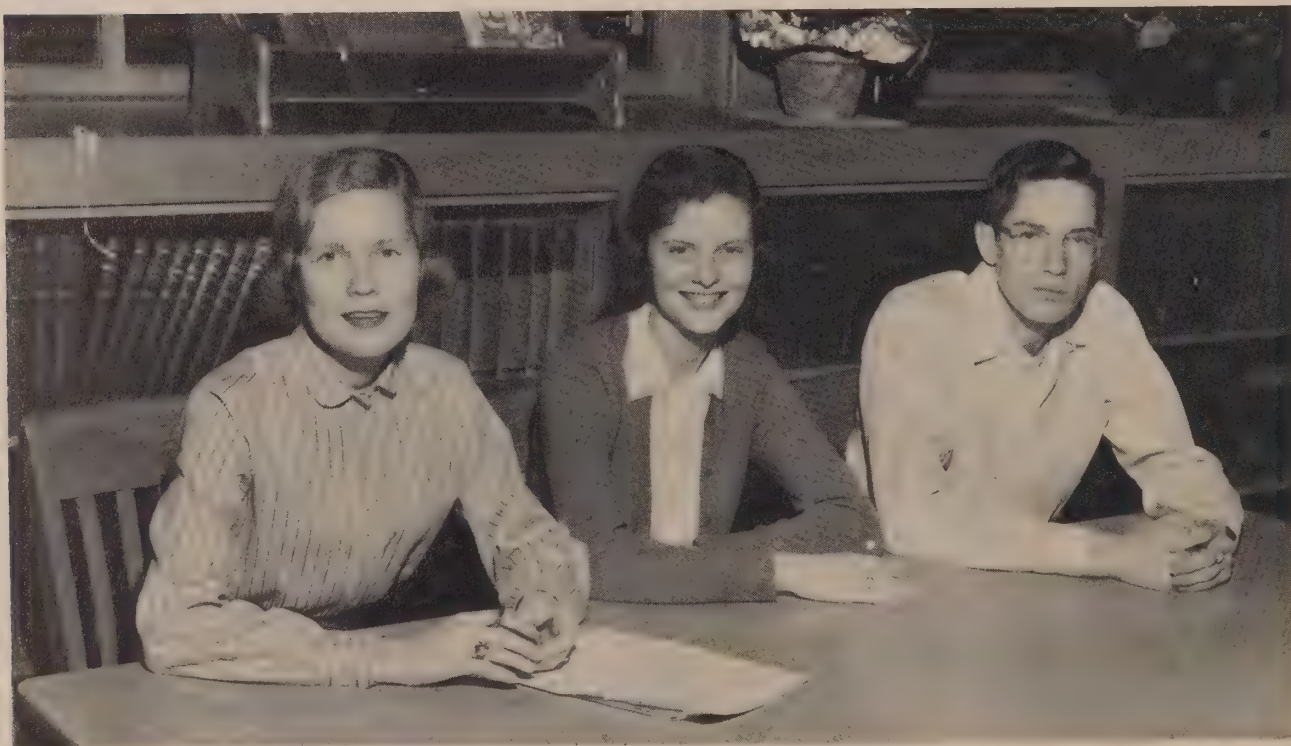

The Student Cooperative Association is the promoter and leader of all school activities. It is like a compound within itself, with the Student Council and S. C. A. Committees its elements. The Student Council, made up of the S. C. A. officers and homeroom presidents, is the governing element of the S. C. A. Through its efforts, school spirit is maintained, leadership is encouraged, and student participation is developed. The committees sponsored by the S. C. A. help the school in all phases of student activity.

This year the S. C. A. provided each eighth grader with a school handbook. It bought a new Virginia flag for the auditorium, was in charge of the Muscular Dystrophy Drive, and sponsored a float in the Homecoming parade.

Delegates from Highland Springs participated in the district meeting in Williamsburg and in the State meeting at Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg.

THE PROM

The evening of March 16, 1957, found the gymnasium of Highland Springs High School transformed into an oriental garden portraying the theme—"Tea House of the August Moon." The occasion was the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The traditional figure was formed by members of the Junior and Senior Classes. They formed a dragon, a rickshaw, tea house, and the figures '57 and '58. Music was furnished by the Holidays. A Japanese atmosphere was created by Japanese lanterns, cherry trees, a tea house, and even a Japanese saying . . . "Lovely Ladies . . . Kind Gentlemen. Go home to ponder. What was true in the beginning remains true . . . May August Moon bring gentle sleep."

Guests are received and couples dance gaily in the "Tea House of the August Moon."

MAY DAY

This year's May Day Festival centered around the theme "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream." The festival, held at night on May 18, began with the introduction of the May Court by Mr. Harold Sadler. Then followed the crowning of the Queen, whose name was kept secret until that moment, by Dr. J. L. Adams. Patricia Burnette received the honor, along with Nancy Adams as Maid of Honor. The program included dances performed by eighth and ninth grade students in honor of the Queen; Puck, the mischievous fairy, played by Carol Gowain; and music by the Glee Club. Following the program an informal dance was held for all the students of Highland Springs. Music was furnished by the school dance band.

The Mark of a Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

Kathy,

I want to wish you the best
of luck always in your coming years,
and also to a real gal. I don't know
sometimes what I would do without you,
but sometimes I know what I can do without you.

Hope you and Allen Hillard can get together some day and be like you would like it to be. I am so sorry that Allen just couldn't make it Friday night.

If you and Allen don't make it maybe you and Danny Cathy can make it back again. If that doesn't work maybe John and I can look you up something that will suit you. Remember Floyd Mayd and how John ~~said~~ ^{said} that he was so cute
and that maybe he would be the one.

Hope you can always remember the good times we have had together, and how I used to talk Daddy into using the car for a while. Hope your father doesn't mind me messing up his driveway.

Hope we can always be good friends
for a long time. See you around after school today. Talk care of the Boys and tell them to talk care of you.

Love fr.
